IMA: market clarification

Following today's performance of IMA's stock which saw the share price fall by more than 6%, the Company deems it appropriate to clarify, in the interest of all shareholders, that the business is proceeding in line with the objectives previously announced.

The product portfolio is well balanced and the order trend allows us to be optimistic about this year's results and about next year's visibility. Management remains strongly committed to a process of continuous technological innovation which underlies its successes on the global market in all sectors where IMA has strengthened its positioning and market share.

The results at 30 September 2018 and the outlook for the whole of 2018 will be announced after the next Board meeting. We are sure that they will be in line with management's expectations as already communicated to the market.
